GOOD QUAKER ADVICE.

In humble and gentle in Your conversation; of two warms to charge you, but always pertinent When you speak, hearing out be-fore you attempt to answer, and fore you attempt to answer, and then speak as if you would per-suade, not impose. Affront name, nother ayense the affronts that are done to you, but forgive, and you shall be furgiven of your lieavenly Father. In making friends consider well first, and when you are fixed, be true, not waveling by reports, nor describing in affliction; for that becometh not the good and virtuous—Will-
